Reason: Company Visit

16 March 2016

Se reafirma nuestra visión positiva: 2016, un buen año en términos de apalancamiento operativo

Tuvimos la oportunidad de contar con Antonio Manso (CFO) y David Gómez (Director IR) en un desayuno ofrecido a inversores en nuestras oficinas. En él se aportó más visibilidad acerca de las perspectivas publicitarias para el 1T16/2016 y la evolución de los parámetros operativos y financieros de la compañía.

- Crecimiento del mercado TV de entre un 4-6% para el 1T16 (ya anticipado en la c.c. de resultados 2015). El comportamiento m/m fue desigual con un Enero negativo (la compañía no cuantificó en qué grado), Febrero altamente positivo con un crecimiento del +16% y Marzo moviéndose en el entorno del +4/6%. Recalcamos que este año la Semana Santa (impacto negativo -3/5%) se sitúa en pleno mes de marzo que a la vez muestra una comparativa exigente a/a. Es por ello que en nuestra opinión, es relativamente sencillo que Abril sea un mes positivo. Antonio M. fijó en el +4% la base de crecimiento anual para 2016 (vs. +5% BEKA).
- El CFO comentó que no observan debilidad en ninguno de los sectores a excepción de telecomunicaciones ante la ola de fusiones que redujo las agresivas campañas de compañías como Jazztel (Orange) y Ono (Vodafone). Se hizo especial mención a la Alimentación, Belleza & Higiene por su resistencia y alto crecimiento de Autos ante las fuertes campañas por el lanzamiento de nuevos modelos en febrero y el incremento de las ventas de vehículos. Y es que generalmente sus presupuestos de marketing son proporcionales a las ventas (+16,8% en Feb-16 de ventas de vehículos comerciales en España aceleradas por la continuación del plan Pive, +50% a/a en inv. publicitaria).
- Antonio Manso comentó que el comportamiento de A3M está yendo mejor que el mercado en su conjunto aunque no piensan que esta tendencia continúe en la segunda parte del año a raíz del aumento de competencia con el lanzamiento de canales. En nuestra opinión, el impacto de los grupos entrantes en TV FTA nacional será limitado por su reducida capacidad financiera, bajas audiencias y las altas barreras existentes a nivel de costes fijos y comercialización de publicidad en el mercado FTA. En cuanto a A3M esperamos que en el 1T16 su crecimiento del top-line sea claramente superior al mercado: spread positivo en el rango de 1-1,5 p.p. Las previsiones de la empresa contemplan mantener su market share en fijando la cota del 42% como suelo (43% estimado desde BEKA, +1 p.p a/a) y power ratio16e de 1,6x; estable a/a y coincidiendo con nuestras proyecciones.
- El 2016 configurará el máximo de inventarios por los nuevos canales. Esperamos que éstos se agoten en el plazo máximo de año/año y medio; momento en el cual los incrementos de inversión publicitaria se recogerán casi por completo a nivel de c/GRP. Aproximadamente 2/3 de la caída de inv. publicitaria desde máximos de 2007 se explicó por precios. En 2015, A3M anunció un aumento de GRP's del +6% a consecuencia de Mega y Atreseries y un +3% en c/GRP's. Esperamos que ambos parámetros se equilibren en 2016e. Los precios publicitarios de A3M son c. de un +8/10% superiores a los de su rival MSE.

For important disclosure information, please refer to the disclaimer page of this report

- El control de costes en 2016 permitirá que este año mejoren sustancialmente los márgenes según Manso: +4,6 p.p. a/a en M.EBITDA16e. La empresa facilitó la siguiente guía de opex: 810-820mEUR (en línea con nuestras proyecciones de 812mEUR, +0,7/2% a/a y excl. el EURO2016) para 2016e, CARG13/16 +3%. Este menor crecimiento de costes operativos a/a vendrá propiciado por la ausencia no recurrentes (pago para evitar cierre de canales, Fórmula 1, lanzamiento de canales y otros) que se invertirán en programación de Mega y Atreseries, la racionalización de costes de programación y medidas de eficiencia. El sistema de ventanas está permitiendo la optimización del coste de los derechos ajenos/propios gracias al visionado anterior en otras plataformas (incluida Pay-TV y otros canales del grupo y las eficiencias multicanal) de las producciones de modo que el coste del derecho disminuye sustancialmente. A3M decidió en 2015 a aumentar su biblioteca por las necesidades de sus nuevos canales lo que contribuyó a aumentar el impacto negativo del circulante en 2015.
- 2016, un buen año en términos de apalancamiento operativo: >80% de conversión de caja a nivel EBITDA vs. c.60% en 2015. A3M proyecta alcanzar aprox. un 25% de M.EBITDA aj. en el medio plazo en TV/radio. Pensamos que esta cota podrá alcanzarse en 2017e: 24,5%.
- La producción in-house, el principal valor de la compañía y el escudo frente al avance de IPTV y OTT's en el LP. Valoramos positivamente que aprox. el 75% de las horas emitidas por sus cadenas principales se corresponden con producción propia. A nivel de grupo la proporción disminuyó por la emisión de un mayor número de canales de nueva generación dirigidos a targets específicos más concretos (femenino -Nova-, masculino -Neox, Mega- e infantil -Neox Kids-). Aunque el consumo de TV lineal disminuyó entre los jóvenes consideramos que la producción de contenidos de calidad asegura el futuro de la empresa por su flexibilidad: (1) venta a terceros, (2) emisión multiformato/multicanal, (3) ingresos extraordinarios a coste nulo procedentes de IPTV, (4) ingresos con origen las plataformas de pago (30m de suscriptores - ARPU bajo-, principalmente cable) internacionales y (5) adaptación de formatos a otros.
- A3M considera que la Champions (tres temporadas) es suficiente para alimentar su parrilla deportiva aunque no descartan pujar por el EURO2016 como la segunda guinda del pastel a precio atractivo. Pensamos que otros competidores como MSE están más presionados para la adquisición de los derechos ante la evolución de su prime time y la falta de derechos deportivos. Estimamos que su coste decreza vs. edición anterior (emitida en 2012 por Telecinco/Cuatro, MSE): 45 vs. 60mEUR anteriores.
- Movistar+ (Pay-TV en general c.6 min./h de publicidad actualmente) no preocupa ni en términos de audiencia ni en cuanto a tarta publicitaria se refiere ya que se encuentra en proceso de construir su base de clientes. Por el momento, los ingresos publicitarios de la plataforma son inferiores (aprox. 60% de inv. publicitaria de la TV-pago) vs. TV FTA dada su baja audiencia. Del total de hogares que posee plataforma de pago (baja penetración cercana al 25% en España), el 75% de los minutos consumidos corresponden a canales FTA disponibles en dichas plataformas. A3M ya cerró parcialmente un acuerdo comercial con Telefónica para que sus canales Free-to-air estuvieran disponibles en su plataforma de pago Movistar+. Destacar que el acuerdo está en proceso de renegociación por la inclusión de DTS (0#) y el aumento en el número de abonados. Esta misma reflexión es aplicable al Pay-TV (incluyendo OTT's como Netflix) que aunque creció un +21% (a/a) en términos de inv. publicitaria según Infoadex no posee aún ni la suficiente audiencia (6,8% total day/ind. en 2015) ni cobertura como para ser competitiva en el mercado geográfico. En magnitudes absolutas la Pay-TV representó 72mEUR frente a los 1,93bnEUR de la TV Free-to-air en 2015.
- Finalmente, A3M descarta en un principio el carry trade por su limitado free-float ante los bajos tipos de interés vigentes. Antonio Manso comentó que la compañía analiza M&A de manera habitual, aunque por el momento no se dan las condiciones de precio y rentabilidad adecuadas para materializar alguna de ellas. Por tanto, A3M sitúa como su prioridad la remuneración al accionista (Pay-out 2015 del 82% con margen de mejora en 2016e).

Como conclusión, la mayor visibilidad aportada vs. mercado publicitario en el 1T16/2016 junto con la contención de opex y los futuros buenos resultados para el 1T16 nos permiten fijar una recomendación de Comprar (potencial 46,2%). Aunque los múltiplos comienzan a estrecharse (+30,4% en el último mes) pensamos que la mejora exponencial en resultado aupada por el ciclo publicitario español junto con la calidad de la compañía justifica mayores subidas del precio de la acción.
